

'One Club'

By Geoffrey Smith,
Chapter Conservation Coordinator

profit ship. Here are some examples of ways you can do my job:

- Lead a hike: solicit a $5 donation to hold a space; invite a knowledgeable person to join the group and talk about a relevant issue such as logging; invite participants to a Forest Committee meeting
- Throw a party: arrange to have a living room concert at your house; charge a $15 fee (musicians want $10/person); pass out membership applications; invite Eric Bowley to talk about the GP2020 planning process
- Have a Movie Night: obtain a VHS movie about an important issue, such as coastal protection - there are many out there; rent an inexpensive venue such as a coffee house; invite folks to see the movie for a $5 donation; provide a table with membership applications and information about the issue
- Human Advertising: be a role model, get involved, pass out 'One Club' action guides wherever you go (available from the chapter office), get your friends to join the Sierra Club

That's my job ... give it a try!

Julia Butterfly Hill is coming to SDSU Montezuma Hall on Friday, May 11 at 6:30 pm. What an exciting opportunity to learn about one young woman's journey through citizen action. See the information ad (pages 3 and 11) in this issue. Learn about the CEQA/Planning process at our workshop on May 10 and July 12 at the office. Find out how simple it is to participate in the citizen review process! ... If you love our Cleveland National Forest - and who doesn't - then participate now in the Forest Management Plan Update. Camille Armstrong or Larry Hogue from the Forest and Wilderness Committee.....See you May 20 on the Walk!

HEROS:

Cheryl Reiff, Office Administrator and Volunteer Coordinator: Her steadfast dedication to the club is remarkable. She manages the office and volunteers (and me) with a gentle but firm grasp, and always has a smile and a laugh to greet.

Lynn Nebus, volunteer extraordinaire: past master calendar/COL data base/Hi Sierran outings coordinator; current outings leadership review and safety coordinator and bookstore calendar sales coordinator. Put Lynn on the job, and you know it will get done right, on time, under budget, and over expectations!

Capture Your Adventures

Would you like to record your next adventure for yourself or for publication? UCSD Extension is offering the following classes this summer:

■ Inspired Writing on Adventure
Begins July 10

■ Sports and the Outdoors
Begins July 10

■ Travel Photography Workshop in Ensenada
Begins August 10
